05.21 Wasting Edible Or Marketable Portions Of Wildlife Prohibited

It is unlawful to allow the edible portions (Code 01.00-C) of any big game, small game (except furbearers), game fish, game bird, or frog normally consumed as food to go to waste. It also is unlawful to discard any portion of furbearers or other wildlife that has a legal marketable or commercial value.

EXCEPTIONS:

A. Bobcats, coyotes, crows, opossum, raccoons and skunks.
B. Legally taken squirrel pelts, rabbit pelts, turkey bones, deer antlers, elk antlers, deer hides, elk hides and feathers not protected by federal regulation (50 CFR 20.1).
C. Nuisance wildlife (Codes 05.10, 05.28 and Addendum G1.01).
D. All rough fish (Code 01.00-C).

PENALTY: Class 2